

please do not allow any further takeover of the "public airways" by the monopolies like clear channel. they are ruining the music business, and the idea that they will end up controlling anything more than they have now, already a monopoly, is abhorrent.